PRESS CLUB'S CONCERT.

Arrangements Completed for Affair

In Tabernacle on June 4. In Tabernacle on June 4.

The Press club of Ogden has decided to give its concert, which has twice been postponed, in the Ogden tabernacle on June 4. All arrangements for the affair were completed yesterday. Willard Andelin of Provo, Utah's great baritone, will be the headliner. Willard Weihe, the violinist; Professor J. J. McClellan and the Tabernacle choir, under the direction of Professor J. E. Ballantyne will be included in the bill. The array of musical talent gotten together by the Press club will be the strongest ever put on the boards in a single concert given in this city. It has been three years since Mr. Andelin has been heard in Ogden. His wife, formerly Miss Arvilla Clark, will act as his accompanist. act as his accompanist.
